SINCE I originated the Gift Book Enterprise, I have repeatedly called the attention of the public to my large stock and liberal offers, to which they have always warmly responded. I can now, with more satisfaction that ever, call attention to my largedy increased inducements to purchasers. Being very heavily engaged in publishing, I exchange my own publications for those of other houses, and am enabled to procure all my hooks at the original cost of making, and thus can and do supply the majority of the other houses engaged in the Gift Book Trudo with their books, cheaper than they can procure them from other publishers. I can also, by my heavy purchases of Watches and Jewelry, for eash, furnish them with their Gifts at lower rates than they can buy them from the manufacturers.

Ilaving such an advantage in buying, I can insure my customers hetter Gifts with their books than any other house, and can give my Agents a larger commission. A valuable Gift will be delivered with each Book at the time of sale. Gifts worth $500, at the lowest wholesale prices, will be impartially distributed with every $1000 worth of Books sold.

Send for a Catalogue, which will be mailed free to any address, containing the most valuable collection of Standard productions in Literature, Philosophy, History, Geography, Travels, and the Seiences, with all the favorite works of Fiction and Romance, and every other depurtment of Literature, classified as described below. Send for it, for if you don't wish to order Books, you will obtain a very valuable Book for reference, as it contains all the desirable books in SHAFTING, PULLEYS, &C., &C.

described below. Send for it, for if you don't wish to order Books, you will obtain a very valumble Book for reference, as it contains all the desirable books in print, and will cost you nothing.

Particular attention is requested to the List of my Publications, which will be found in the latter part of my Classified Cutalogue. It contains a large number of deservedly popular works, by various authors; among which are all of T. S. The Vote of Kentucky.

All the counties have made returns to the Secretary of State except Letcher and Edmonson, and from both of these we have reliable reports. If we have made no mistakes in a careful addition of the votes, or in copying the returns in the Secretary's office, the total vote of the State between the candidates for Governor in the late election is 144,072, and Magoffin's majority is 9,182. We do not think that the official declaration of the vote when made will vary much from these figures. We give a statement of the complete vote of the State, divided into Congressional districts:

|--------|-------------|
| 1      | 1 9815      |
| 2      | 2 7443      |
| 3702.  | 6523        |
| 4      | 7205        |
| 55476  |             |
| 6735:  | 7518        |
| 76569  |             |
| 86907  |             |
| 9      |             |
| 105930 | 91 15       |
|        |             |
| 6744   | 76627       |
|        | 67445       |

The largest vote heretolore obtained by any Democratic candidate in Kentucky was Buchanan's in 1856, which, including the counties rejected for informality in returns, amounted to 74,857—and the largest majority obtained by any Democratic candidate of late years was Revill's, last year, 13, 095.

Joshua F. Bell-the great Joshua-that was going to "tear things loose"-loses on Morehead's vote 2,371, while Magoffin gains on Clarke 11,214. Bell's vote is less than Fillmore's, while Magoffin's is much larger than Buchanan's. The figures prove conclusively that Kentucky is democratic all over, and likely to remain so forever. The Democracy have gained constantly since 1855, and in the late clection polled more votes than any party ever obtained before in this State. Know-Nothingism, Patent Americanism, Oppositionism, Black Republicanism, and all other isms, are vanquished never to raise head again here.

The Fourth District.

The official returns from the counties of in Roman letter, 14. this district, as made at first to the oflice of +Senators marked thus (†) were elected in the Secretary of State, gave Anderson a majority of 3 over Chrisman. In the last few days a mistake of 13 votes in favor of Chrisman has been discovered upon the returns from Cumberland county, and the Secretary has been notified of the fact. We are permitted to use a copy of a letter from the State Senator elect from the Cumberland district, who resides in the county, in reference to this error, as follows:

Buausville, Aug. 12, 1859. DEAR SIRS: I this morning examined closely the poll books of this county in the race for Congress, and find that the examining board here corrected all mistakes in the summing up of the votes against Anderson, there being a mistake of two votes on the poll book at town and none elsewhere, while they failed to correct the mistakes against Chrisman. There is a mistake on the Kettle Creek poll book of 10 votes, made in this way: Chrisman's vote was 56; the next vote recorded for him was put down at 47, and this error was kept up to the end. There is a mistake of 2 votes against hun at town and one at Marrowbone, making 13 in all, and never corrected. Anderson's majority in this county is 270, with the books corrected, and upon this you may rely-Anderson's vote in the county being 650, and Chrisman's 3x(1, * * * *

You may rely upon what I have written you. I have showed the mistake to Anderson's friends here, and they surrender it. Your friend, S. II BOLES.

This palpable error in the Comberland returns settles the election clearly in favor of Chrisman, and when the day appointed by law arrives for issuing certificates, the board will have to give Mr. Chrisman his credentials of election. An attempt to defraud him of an office to which he was fairly elected will not be tolerated by the people of his district nor of the State, and Mr. Anderson, if he is the man he is represented to be, will submit g accfully to the popular verdict, whatever it may turn out to be.

The Legislature.

We publish in another column a full and corrected list of the members of the Legislature. The Democracy have a majority of 28 upon joint ballot-a gain of six over the last Legislature. The following is the division of parties in the two branches: SENATE.

Last House-Democrats 62; Opposition 38.

[Correspondence of the Yeoman.] Louisville, August 4th, 1859.

While I am not going to write you any particular news, yet I can't refrain from expressing my own enthusiasm, together with the gratitude of every Democrat of this almost God-forsaken and dark spot, (that is left to blacken and mar the bright and glorious escutcheon of the proud old State of Kentucky,) that the People of the State, whose mighty voice, in thunder tones, did, on last Monday, administer so fitting a rebuke to the vile upon it. and corrupt clique of officer-holders in this city; who, by a violation of all deeency, law, and order, even disgusted and made sick many of the better men who voted the Opposition ticket, who is the better men who voted the Opposition ticket, who is the former place. saw the open corruption and high-handed violence practiced at nearly every voting precinct in the the polls all day, and who, by threats of violence and propries of firm of firms.

In Newport, Ky., on Saturday, August 13th, 1859, at 1 2 o'clock, A. M., of a long and painful illness, Mrs. Clarena M., wife of Janues R. Hallam, Esq., aged 42 years and 18 days. and promises of future favors, controlled nearly Bayce, formerly of Louisville, Ky., aged about 65 the whole foreign vote of this city, as well as years voted many persons who were induced to come Jas. R. Wust. & years of age, a native of Maryland and resident of Kentucky 54 years. ei y by a large majority, knowing full well that such a course was their only hope of defeating THE INAUGURATION. our gallant Holt, who would have easily beaten expression of our voters at the ballot-box. The same, or even worse scenes of violence and threats, were practiced at all, or nearly all the voting precincts in the county by the outlaws and cut-throat bullies who were used by the Opposition to dejeat our high-toned, gallant, and Co. J. H. USARRARD, Opposition to defeat our high-toned, gallant, and distinguished Gov. Meriwether and Sam'l Geiger, who took their lives in their hand; and boldly determined to put down the assassins that made a most determined effort to rob the people ol their right of franchisc. There is one precinct in the county that deserves everlasting praise and gratitude for their noble and patriotic efforts in coming up to the rescue, thereby saving the defeat of Messrs. M. and G. I allude to that Geo. T. Gradi noble band of Democrats in Hays' precinct. All bonor is due to their gallant services.

Too much praise cannot be awarded to that g'orious band of "Butcher Boys," who so faithfilly guarded the polls at the Butchertown precinct, keeping down bloodshed and violence, Barb. Blackburn. thereby securing the election of Jos. Croxton, Detrokets of Admission, $5 Esq., to the Legislature by a small majority, but who ought to have been elected by 400 or 500; and yet the Louisville Journal talks about the contesting of the election of Meriwether mid Geiger and that of your glorious and gallant Simms in the Ashland District. Oh! what a benutiful party Prentice has got, to talk about contesting elections, and accusing Demnerats of corruption at the ballot-box, and of fraud in administering the offices of the General Government! Shame on such expressions, coming from a party whose history is the most vile, corrupt, and abusive of any party that ever had a name in this country.

Glorious and cheering news is hourly reaching 113 from all parts of the State, all of which indicates large gains for both branches of the Legislature, which will secure to us a United States Senator in the place of John J. Crittcuden, who has long enough misrepresented the people of this thoroughly Democratic State.

No news as yet received from any portion of the State has awakened such wild and unrestrain- Wednesday, August 24th. 1859, ed bursts of cuthusiasm in the heart of every Democrat in this city, (who has at heart the good of his party,) as that which heralded forth the glorious triumph of Capt. Wui. E. Simms over Gen. John M. Harlan, and the combined hosts of the Opposition in the Ashland District, with of the Opposition in the Ashland District, with Girrett Davis as the "head and front" of a bitter enemy. Such a victory is truly grand and sublime, and Capt. Simms will wear the honors so nobly bestowed upon him with as much grace, and honor to himself and bis constituency, as any man or to himself and bis constituency, as any man in the State. Next came the cheering news of an over whelming victory that had perched upon the bead of that young, ardent, and talented John Young Brown, of the Filth District, who has of the occasion.

At the occasion.

At the occasion.

An uple arrangements will be made to supply the inner man with good substantial food. &c. Young Brown, of the Fifth District, who has colors, and won for himself an imperishable fame, and triumphed over a man who disregarded every principle connected with the precedents of the Democratic party, and set himself up in defince of his constituency as an enemy and disorganizer in the ranks, but who has received such a fitting rebuke at the hands of a free and independent people as will doubtless teach Mr. Jewett, and all others in the ranks of our party, that it is a dangerous experiment for a public servant to undertake to dictate to his lords and masters what course they shall pursue.

Our party owe a great debt of gratitude to J. Y. Brown for the arduous, spirited, and successful canvass he has just passed through, and will not be slow, I trust, in fully acknowledging that debt. And I, for one, think that the Fifth Dis-Harrison 2-Jo. Shawhan and W. W. Cleary, both trict should be awarded the title of Brown's Banner District of the State.

Last, but not lest, has Col. John A. Prall won one of the most gallant victories ever contested in the State, and signally achieved over a tested in the State, and signally achieved over a five role of the above, has one of the five role of the above, has one of the five tested in the neighborhood, a hewed to not cold water in the neighborhood, a hewed to not cold water in the neighborhood, a hewed to not cold water in the neighborhood, a hewed to not cold water in the neighborhood. boastingly declared "could not be defeated; for Mr. Brutus J. Clay was almost a millionaire, and would spend his money freely to the last"

But the victory of Col. Prall has again proven the sees.

Will, IDUGHERTY.

MARY AND DOUGHERTY. fact that there is more virtue in the principles of Democracy, and in the hearts of the honest people, than in Mr. Clay's money. And the Opposition have had no principle connected with the eanvass in the entire State save that of beating the Democracy.

I am credibly informed that Joshua F. Bell said to his friends, but a few days before the election, that he would be hadly bearen, for the party he was running for bad no future after this canvass. Doubtless he now sees his error in allowing that party he "was running for" to place him in a position that must inevitably sacrifice him for all future; but as a matter of consolation to him. I would say that we have some defeated eardidates in our eity who have been slaughtered by the sacrificial hands of a vile elique who worked hard to keep their own places of power in this city, but now have no further use for Mr. Bell. Our candidates who were defeated here are patiently awaiting the arrival of Bell, that they may comfort him on his trip up Salt river. The news from all parts of the State indiente that the "Augean stable" has been swept nearly clean, and the "Goths and Vandals" will now hie away to their dark holes and secret hiding-places, to mourn over their ignominious defeat, and Prentice is now hard at work searching every dictionary in the land to see if there is any name left "given under Heaven or among men" that can be adopted under which to resurreet

Rheumatism Cured.

To the readers of the Yeoman: Preserve this notice. If not afflicted yourself, you may serve suffering humanity by sending it to some one who has cured probably twenty thousand cases of this printul and paralyzing disease-comprising cases of every seeming form, from those of a recent inflaminatory (acute) character, to old chronic cases of ten, twenty, and even thirty years' standing. This disease is becoming more prevalent every year, and is seldom cured, or even alleviated, by the usual course of treatment. In its active form it often proves fatal, or if not soon arrested, becomes ehronie-stillens the joints, contracts the ligaments, muscles, and tendons, and thus ren ders the sufferer a cripple for life, or, if ever alterwards cured, even by the use of this remedy, requires longer treatment and greater expense. This is a vegetable internal remedy which cured the proprietor of it after long suffering, and all the usual remedies known had failed, and is safe to be used in any state of health—even by the for the purpose at Greenwood. to be used in any state of health-even by the most delicate female or child, and its success, in Board, including Fuel and Lights...... earing rheumatism, is attested by thousands, among whom are eminent physicians, ministers of various denominations, prominent journalists, and individuals of high standing throughout our country, such as should inspire confidence in every w rational mind

[From the Loudon Times of July 29.] The Disarmament of France.

The Moniteur of yesterday contains the most welcome announcement that could come to English cars from a f-reguland. The Emperor has issued his orders to disarm. With the least possible delay the army and havy of France are to be restored to their peace establishment. The people of England reading these glad tidings will take a deep broath, such as a man taken the take a deep breath, such as a man takes when a erisis ul apprehension is past; they congratulate each other that the peril they deed has drifted away, and that they may turn back to peaceful pursuits, and to the ideasant paths of human existence. It was not in panic lear, but in grave and sad disquictude, that we in this island regarded that heavy cloud, so charged with electricity, which loomed upon the near horizon. We felt that it must barst or disperse, and if it burst we had small choice n our conjectures, as to where only the bolt must fol. Frankly then, we acknowledge in this salutary determination of our neighbur a dally a proof of loyel adherence to the triendship which has unted these two great nathe friendship which has united these two great havines, and gladly recognize in it a pledge of future peace to Europe. Undoubtedly the resolution has been taken sidely from consideration for the true interests of France. She has had her season of new glories, and the Emperor has gained his first crown of laurels. It is moderate and wise to stop while the appetite is still unsafed. "Rien epu ser" is a maxim of personal economy, which is true also in public national concerns. Napoteen III has done, perhaps, less than he might once have intended to do in Italy, but he has done all that he has chosen to attempt. We will not now stop to discuss the shortcomings or to anticipate what may be the altimite result of the new system that must be there established. Having, however, determined to close this chapter of his history, the Emperor has most wisely consulted the financial exigencies and the material ndvantage of his kingdom in staying the heavy expenditure of men and maney, and in giving France, as we hope, a long repose from the improfitable toil of war. We have said upon former occasions that for a war to be popular in France it must be short, and it must be successful. The war which is just closed, has fulfilled both these conditions. We recognize in this disarmament the sagacity of the Emperor in gauging the temper of his people, and, for our own part, we rejoice that we may now return to security and peace. We shall, of course, in due time follow the example of our neighbor. We are, however, much behind him in the completeness of our peace establishmen. There are many specks of rust vet to be rubbed nway, and mony muldering works yet to be re-paired. But these are merely the ordinary mutters of defense. Having no alea of aggression, and being too careless of remote possibilities, we have let many things run into disrepair. The Mr. W. S. S. Crawford's Hella, 3 yrs., 5st. 2lb. eareful householder paints and papers periodically, and we have been stimulated by recent events to survey our premises and make good dilapidations. Happily, there is now no further need that this ould be done in haste. We have handed the consileration of these matters over to a Commission, which is about to decide what is the per-manent defensive establishment which these islands require in time of peace, as the basis whence upon an emergency a full war establishment might be quickly built up. By the report of that Commission we shall be guided, and we congratulate ourselves and our readers that we may hereafter deal with these questions dispassionately as points of more engineering or science, and without fear that the fortilications which England like all other powers, must necessarily keep up, are in danger of being at nn early day tested by an enemy. [From the London News of July 29.]

This dimination of immense a maments is spontaneously resulved on before the armistice is a month old, and while the peace exists only in its Gaspard, with Blue Jacket, Ferndale, and Common of the Common of preliminaries. It is as the sign in earnest of a pacific disposition that the worth of the announcement ought to be estimated. It will be accepted here with candor, not indeed as a reason for foregoing the dem sulf for those reforms in our belligerent services of which we have been made to feel the need so painfully, nor for acquiescing in a return to a state of costly inellicincy, but as a reaturn to a state of costly inellicincy in the cost of the state of costly inellicincy in the cost of th going the dem and for those reforms in our belligerson for dismissing the lessons of dark distrust, Lifeboat, who had been lying off in the ruck, now which have uf late been inculcated as the perfecjoined the leading horses. [From the London Times, July 29.1 Leopold's Abdication.

The telegraph brought us the intelligence vesterday that Leopold II, the Grand Duke of Tuscany, has abdicated in favor of his son. This is an event which suggests more favorable concluas to the future fortunes of the Grand Duchy than any which has reached our knowledge since the famous interview of the two Emperors after the battle of Solferino Had the path beeu so straight and so clear for the return of Leopold II. as had been suggested, we should not have heard anything of the substitution of the son for the father. Had the court of Vienna been inelined to med lie in the affairs of Central Italy ns in former times, the idea of yielding so far to the conflar voice would have been utterly abhorrent to its chief advisers. It is, of course, impossible for any one who is not in the immediate abdication has been suggested either from Vienna or Paris; but the bare suggestion betrays either weakness or embarrassment. As far as the Tuseans are concerned, a man must be singularly ignorms of the internal concerns and recent history of the Grand Duchy who should suppose that the people were actuated by any violent feeling of antipathy to the late Grand Duke-for in such terms we presume we must speak of a sovereign who by his abdicction has just completed an act of political suicide Leopold II, was not personally unpopular. Although the attendance of general company was yesterday comparatively meagre, the gather-ing to-day was still more scanty. The character of the competitors was not of an order to render their performances important, or to excite more than a transient interest among genuine racing men. Mr. Ten Braeck brenglit from America a stud of half a dozen horses. After giving the subject that careful thought to which the accomplished editor of that very able paper is always entitled, we can see no sufficient reason for departing from the established usage of the Democratic party in Kentucky.

> That usage has been to appoint the delegates to the National Convention at the State Convention; but the delegates from each Congressional district are entrusted with the selection and recommendation to the State Convention of suita able persons to be appointed as delegates and alternates for such district; and thus practically each district selects its own representatives to the National Convention.

We want a Democrat, a man of ability, influence, energy, and integrity—one who will com-mand the respect of the nation—a fit successor of Clar, and a suitable colleague for our distinguishlow citizen, Gov. Powell.

Without meaning in the slightest degree to ignore or disparage the merits or pretentions of other distinguished Democrats of whom Kentucky can boast, any one of whom would fill the positio with honer and credit, it seems to usthat the in-terest of the State and nation demand for the place the services of John C. South Kentucky already has a Senator, and the Democracy, unlike their opponents, have always favored an equitable distribution of the offices throughout the State. Such was the feel ing that actuated the Convention last winter, and hence the distribution of state office as nearly equal as was practicable.

The same principle would seem to suggest a Senator from north or middle Kentucky.

Again, the Decocracy have, in hestowing honalways considered the character of service ren lered by those on whom they are bestowed. Men who have always been anxious for office and ready for position, where it could be attained without hazard or sacrifice; who have ever been willing to encounter our foes when victory was sure, and danger afar off; and as unwilling to go into battle when the odds were against us, have never been viewed with the same favor as those who, regardless of danger, hazard or sacrifices, have always been on hand whenever their services were demanded.

This has been often shown in the last ten years in Kentucky, and in no case was this feeling more strikingly manifested than in the last Convention which selected for the State offices, wherever it could, the fallen of IS55. This recollection of past services—of fidelity in times of adversity a characteristic of the Democracy of which every Democrat is, and should be, proud, and ought tube encouraged and fostered. How does Maj. Breckinridge stand with the Democracy of Kentucky in regard to past services? He has been no smoshne friend of the Democracy; he have always been over the enemy and never over from our opponents—they have been gathered in the strongholds of the Opposition, and when every one, but him, thought the chances were they resulted to the benefit of the Democracy throughout the Union, and were so regarded at the time.

So in 1853 he held his ground against the Whig party and defeated Gov. Letcher; notwithstand Union, was bruught to bear against him.

All the chances were against him, and nothing but his indometable courage and his unswerving faith in the principles of the Democratic party, and determination to maintain them, at all luzards, could have enabled him to succeed. That his devotion to Democracy has been disin teristed, is manifest from his declining to accept office of profit and honor from Gen Pierce w it was tendered him; his willingness, indeed his auxiety, to canvass Kentucky as State elector in 1856, and his reluctince to accept the position he now occupies, though tendered by the Democracy of the nation, preferring, as he then declared, another of Kentucky's sons for the place.

Maj. Breckmridge has, in his brilliant career, shown less desire for self promotion, and more devotion and zeal in behalf of the success of Democracy, than any man we know of.

His gallantry has been only equaled by his modesty, and his brilliancy and ability by his ascretion and his devotion to principle Powell and Breeki ridge in the Senate, Kentucky will stand in the Union where she stood when she was represented by Clay, Rowan, Bibb, Talbutt,

[From the Lexington Statesman.] Harrison County Vote.

It is said in the good book that "there is a time tor all things." This applies us well to political all'urs as to everything else. Last Spring we expressed the opinion that it would be better then Kenucky Central Railroad to Colemans ille pre einet, Harrison eaunty, and that they voted there for Capt. Simms. To this, and like causes, is was or should be candidate for President, and su attributed the defeat of Mr. Harlan. When in vestigated this allegation falls to the ground, and who seemed to have forgottercal about the State becomes another illustration of the unscrupulous election, in their anxiety to keep before the publie the name of their favorite for the Presidency, of the Democratic vote in this district. The Now the State election is over, and the State is following certificate is conclusive in proof of the

They have cried fraud, and are denounced as calumniators, slanderers, and falsiliers. They must rest under that denunciation so long as these charges are either unwithdrawn or unsustained. They allege importation. If true, the fact is easily shown Let them do it or stand lishonored as false accusers. With all fair men the vote of Harrison can not be successfully assailed by mere newspaper assertion. The Democracy rest upon it and dare their slanderers

With a fair majority of sixtyseven against him, he yet wanders over the district in the vain hope of reversing the verdict of poblic sentiment, and through his party journals percously begs his friends to furnish him grounds ipon which he can stand before a Black Republi can House and ask at the hands of Abolitionists in annulment of the will of this people. the perpetration by his own party, and in his own behalf, of the most revolting atrocities and infamous frauds which ever disgraced an election day, he comes unblushingly to the bar of public opinion, and in suppliant tones complains of fraud. Was ever a specticle presented to this people in which so much coo, impudence and puerite weakness combined to disgnst all whu contemplate it? Think of it! The candidate of the Know-Nothing and Opposition laction—a party whose whole career has been marked by every fraud and outrage which could violate the sancti-ty of the ballot-box, and whose history is traced n violence and blood - moves about through the district under the pretext of discovery of outrages upon the elective franchise. A more miserable, pitiful, ridiculous farce was never enacted before an intelligent people. He owes it to himself and to the men who supported him, to contest and in the name of consistency don't he contest this district for ten years by defeated candidates. Let us for once have an investigation. Let the public understand why fifty Democratic voters were excluded in Fayette courty. Let it be as certained if intimidation and mobocracy prevailed at Frankfort. Let it be understood how many legal voters failed to vote at the seat of govern-ment, and why they did not go to the polls. Let the whole district be advised of the decision judges of election in Bourhan county, and the native and naturalized voters. Let the whole subject be opened up, and the fullest scrutiny instituted. Contest! We dely, and dare a contest of the seat of of Captain Simms. But none will

Anderson's majority.... 3 We have been informed upon what we consider reliable authority, that the vote of Cumberland county has been wrongly reported. It is put duwn at 652 for Anderson, and 368 for Chrisman, thereby giving Anderson a majority of 224. There is in this report a mistake of 11 votes in favor of Anderson, and against Chrisman. The wise, Chrisman will be driven to the necessity of contesting the election, which is a very expensive, troublesome, and laborious undertaking. There is no use of driving him to this, when it can be avoided so easily. Anderson will not claim the certificate when convinced of such a mistake, if we rightly judge the man. He is a high toned gentleman, as we estimate him, and we think he will be for having this mistake corrected, and give up the election to Chrisman if there are no other mistakes to offset it .- Lou.

THE following works are sent to Subscribers in any part of the country, (upon receipt of retail price,) by mail or express, prepaid: THE NEW AMERICAN CYCLOPEDIA

THE NEW AMERICAN CYCLOPÆDIA;

A popular Dictionary of General Knowledge. Edited by George Riples and Charles A. Jana, aided by a numerous select corps of writers in all branches of Sciences, Art, and Literature. This work is being published in about 15 large octave volumes, each containing 750 two-column pages, Vols, L. H., Hi, IV., a. V., are now ready, each containing near 2,500 original articles. An additional volume will be published once in abot 1 three months.

Price, in Cloth, $3; Sheep, $3 50; Half Mor., $1; Half Russia, $4 50 ench.

The New American Cyclopedia is popular witbout being superficial, learned but not pedantic, comprehensive but sufficiently detailed, free from personal pique and party prejudice, fresh and yet ucentate. It is a complete statement of all that is known upon every important topic within the scope of human intelligence. Every important article in it has been expectably written for its pages by men who are authorities upon the tepics on which they speak. They are required to bring the subject up to the present unment; to state just how it stands now. All the statistical information is from the latest reports; the geographical accounts keep pace with the latest explorations; historical matters include the freshest just views; the biographical notices not only speak of the dead, but also of the living. It is a fibrary of iself.
